What's my story?

Living in Metro Vancouver, I've seen first-hand the growth and potential here for small business owners and entrepreneurs. This, combined with my experience in the financial industry and retail banking allows me to offer sound advice on a deeper level, supporting individuals as they work towards their financial goals for themselves and their business.

Having helped my own family run a small local business, I'm deeply familiar with the journey and hurdles many business owners face. I work with members to find the right solution catered to their specific needs and circumstances and take great joy in creating valuable, long-lasting relationships that have a positive impact.

Call or email and let's chat about how I can help you achieve your business goals.
